

Cigich (wife, Tina) of Centre Hall. Grandfather of Wilhemina, Gianni & Joseph Feraco; Sara & Lara Sanders; Nathan & Erin Hopkins; Haley Chopich; Cassie & Sean Cigich. Brother of Frank Cigich of Level Green, Edward Cigich of Trafford, and the late Peggy Johnson. Friends may call Thursday 7-9pm, Friday 2-4 & 7-9pm at PATRICK T. LANIGAN FUNERAL HOME, 700 Linden Avenue At Cable, East Pgh., (412-824-8800). Mass of Christian Burial in St. John De LaSalle, Delmont, on Saturday at 10am. Friends are welcome to gather at church. Burial will follow in Twin Valley Cemetery. www.laniganfuneralhome.com
Please sign the guest book at post-gazette.com

CONSRUCK
JAMES W.
Age 76 of Monroeville on October 15, 2002; dearest husband of Mary June (Steltenkamp); dear father of Anthony, Joseph, Jeffery, and David Consruck and Mary Louise Stumpf; also ten grandchildren; brother of Leonard and Richard Consruck and Bernadine Harns and the late Donald, Jerome and Joseph. Friends may call at GENE VAN HORN FUNERAL HOME (MONROEVILLE/PLUM HOME) Beatty Rd. & Route 48N, Monroeville on Wednesday 7:30-9pm. Requiem Mass at Sacred Heart Chapel, Akron, OH, on Thursday 12:30 pm. Interment Lakewood Cemetery, Akron, OH. Donations may be made to the Hospice Preferred Choice, 2400 Ardmore Blvd., Suite 302, Pgh., PA 15221.
Please sign the guest book at post-gazette.com

COYNE
PATRICK P.
Of Mt. Lebanon, on Tuesday, October 15, 2002; beloved husband of Mary Jo (Hayden) Coyne; father of Tami, Teri, Patrick & Shawn; brother of the late Thomas M. & Mary Ann Coyne; grandfather of Sara, Caroline, Emily & Sophia; son of the late Mary Ann (O'Malley) & Thomas F. Coyne. Friends may call at LAUGHLIN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 222 Washington Rd, Mt. Lebanon on Friday 2-4 & 7-9pm. Blessing Service in the funeral home on Saturday at 11:30am. After graduating from Central Catholic High School, Pat was awarded a football scholarship to New York University. He then spent time in the US Army in the C&D Department. After completing service Pat began his political career in Allegheny County. He ran for County Commissioner in 1963. His career took a turn to the Pittsburgh Labor Council and then as special representative to the President of the United Steelworkers of America. He worked diligently for the Grapeworkers under Cesar Chavez, for brain injured children at the Rehabilitation Institute in Philadelphia and supported opposition to the Vietnam War. He became an auditor for the State of PA in 1978 under Auditor General Barbara Hafer. He was elected President of AFSCME Local 972 and remained in office as President until his recent retirement in 2001. Until the end Pat never lost his intense interest in politics as a means of helping working people. If desired, Memorials may be made to the Greater Pittsburgh Food Bank, or to Amnesty International.
Please sign the guest book at post-gazette.com

DIGGANS
IRMA L.
Of Crafton Boro, on Monday, October 14, 2002; beloved wife of the late William J. Diggans; loving mother of Patricia Crawford, Sheryl L. Ferro and William J. Diggans Jr.; survived by one brother, Harry Dunnhoff; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Visitation 7-9 pm Thursday and 2-4 and 7-9 pm Friday at HENRY R. HENNEY FUNERAL HOME, 524 Washington Ave., Carnegie, where Funeral Service will be conducted Sat., 1 pm.
Please sign the guest book at post-gazette.com

Cont. In Page A-16

Patrick P Coyne Obituary

Clipped By:
tomstrong
Thu, Mar 2, 2023