

NEARBY TOWNS

JOHN PHILLIPS, 88, GASTONVILLE, DIES

Gastonville, Dec. 23 — John Phillips, 88 years old, who had conducted a grocery business here for the last 45 years, died Sunday, December 21, 1930, at 7:10 p. m., in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Miller, of Gastonville. He was well known in this vicinity. He was born in England. He suffered a paralytic stroke a few days ago.

He leaves the following children: Joseph P., of Washington; John, of Lock No. 4; Dave, of East Fredericktown; Thomas, at home; Mary J. Darby, of Birmingham, England; Mrs. Sarah Sessi, of Finleyville; Mrs. Barbara Messner, Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. Mabel Maradith, and Mrs. Edith Carter, all of Gastonville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Miller. Interment will be in the James Chapel Cemetery.